May 3: Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Amsterdam is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. If you choose to fly in the day of embarkation, you will have a transfer from the airport to the ship. After boarding, the afternoon is free. You may wish to visit the Rijksmuseum or the Van Gogh Museum. There is so much to see and do. Maybe just walk around this city of beautiful bridges. Watch out for the bicycles!!

May 4: Kinderdijk, The Netherlands See the picturesque Dutch countryside and Kinderdijk's working windmills. Kinderdijk is a UNESCO world heritage site, and one you will always remember. Our guide will tell us the story of the Dutch country's long history with water. This series of windmills not only is lovely, it is part of the national story of this country.

May 5: Cologne, Germany

Stroll through Cologne's Old Town and see the city's famed Gothic cathedral, a UNESCO Heritage Site. This 2,000-old city is Western Germany's cultural hub. Cologne is Germany fourth largest city. It is rich in museums and there is always a cultural event taking place. Be sure and have a pretzel as you walk down the street in your free time.

May 6: Koblenz, Germany/ Rudesheim, Germany

Capture views from hilltop Ehrenbreitshein Fortress and visit the 19th century fortification.

Rhine River: Cruise past hilltop castles along the Middle Rhine, A UNESCO site, and look for Lorelei Rock

Rudesheim: Stroll the pedestrian-only Drosselgasse; sample local wines and a quaint restaurant or wine bar.

May 7: Speyer, Germany

Speyer, founded by the Romans, is one of the oldest cities in Germany. This beautiful old town has the historic Romanesque imperial cathedral, a UNESCO site. The foundation stone of the imperial cathedral was laid in 1030.

May 8: Strasbourg, France

A French town with a German accent? Yes, just one of the many reasons to love Strasbourg. The beauty of the old town brings back all the charms of France, Germany, and even England to me.

(Maybe the Tutor-style houses??). The Cathedrale Notre-Dame is worth a visit as it anchors the old town area. The shopping is fantastic, and the Alsatian food is delicious. French-German food??? But it works!! And if you are a beer drinker – this is considered the place to lift a glass!

May 9: Breisach, Germany

Breisach is situated among rolling vineyards between the Rhine River and the Black Forest. The small town was almost totally destroyed by bombings during WWII, but was meticulously rebuilt in the old style. It is a great jumping off to go into the beautiful Black Forest.
